

Characteristics of Learning

Perseverance	A cartoon illustration of a person's head with a sad expression, a hand on their forehead, and a question mark and exclamation mark above their head, symbolizing confusion or difficulty.	Try our best Willing to 'have a go' even when it's tricky Keep going Don't give up	A cartoon illustration of a brown and orange turtle walking to the right.
Independence	Three stick figures standing in a row. A red diagonal line is drawn over the two figures on the right, leaving only the one on the left, representing independence.	Responsible for own learning Organised	A cartoon illustration of a white polar bear walking to the right.
Imagination	A cartoon illustration of a person's head inside a thought bubble. The person is wearing a crown and holding a wand. A star and a question mark are also inside the bubble, symbolizing creative ideas.	New ideas Trying different ways Being creative	A cartoon illustration of a colorful butterfly with yellow, red, and blue wings.
Co-operation	A cartoon illustration of two stick figures sitting at a table, facing each other, representing teamwork or cooperation.	Working together Team work	A cartoon illustration of a black and yellow striped bee.
Curiosity	Three colorful question marks (red, green, and blue) of varying sizes, symbolizing curiosity and inquiry.	Keen to find things out Asks questions and wants to know the answers	A cartoon illustration of a grey owl with large yellow eyes, perched on a branch.